EXPERIENCE

RIVET CREATIVE

Design Director

August 2015-Present

At Rivet I work with clients – mainly startups and local businesses – to help them develop their business strategies, web strategies, and marketing tactics. I lead UX projects and work with other designers and developers in ensuring we are outputting the best possible product

BROCKTON CREATIVE GROUP

Art Director & Developer

April 2013-August 2015

At BCG I directed and approved all creative projects that came through our door, as well as led all UI/UX projects from business strategy to wire-frames, to design and then development. I managed the design team and help set deadlines, hired staff, attended client meetings and presented all creative work, and worked directly with clients to create the best solutions for their projects. I also supervised the development team and insured that we were leveraging the latest and greatest technologies to meet our clients needs.

Designer & Front End Developer

May 2012-April 2013

Worked directly with creative director and clients to concept, design, and implement projects. I wire-framed, designed and developed websites using HTML, CSS, Java Script, and Wordpress, designed logos, and created print materials ranging from billboards to postcards and mass market catalogs.

DESOTO INVESTMENTS

Junior Designer

DECEMBER 2011-MAY 2012

At Desoto Investments I worked directly with the CEO to develop his various startups and business ventures. Responsibilities included everything from logo design to website strategy, design, and development.
